

TEPPANYAKI MENU

Teppanyaki is a traditional Japanese cuisine derived from the words “teppan” (iron plate) and “yaki” (grilled, broiled, or pan-fried), meaning “grilling on an iron plate.”

More than just a meal, Teppanyaki is a culinary art performance, blending ancient Japanese cooking techniques with modern showmanship. Skilled chefs prepare premium meats, fresh seafood, and flavorful noodles right before your eyes, delivering both exquisite flavors and an unforgettable dining experience.

SUSHI MENU

Sushi is a traditional Japanese dish made with medium-grained rice cooked in vinegar, served with raw or cooked seafood, and complemented by a variety of toppings or fillings.

Contrary to popular belief, rice is the main component of sushi, not raw fish. While many people recognize sushi as rolled and sliced into bite-sized pieces, not all sushi is rolled.
